The "Wordsmith "series is the value-priced option that students will appreciate while mastering key writing and grammar skills. Pam Arlov wrote a textbook series that counters many of the objections students had about textbooks, such as: Students find textbooks dry and tedious. Arlov includes thought-provoking chapter openers, plenty of visuals, and a conversational, engaging writing style that students really respond to. Students find textbooks irrelevant to their lives. Arlov's coverage of the rhetorical modes is realistic and models real-life writing. She includes "Real Writing" examples in the modes chapters to make "Wordsmith "relevant to students' lives. Students become frustrated if the entire text is not used in class."Wordsmith "is 100 pages briefer than similar texts on the market and an affordable option. This more concise approach also does not overwhelm students with too much information. "Wordsmith" provides students with just the right balance of instruction and practice.

Direct, conversational, and user-friendly, this book is broader in scope than most sentence level books, and contains clear explanations supported by numerous examples and exercises. KEY TOPICS It focuses on paragraphs, includes no rhetorical modes, and has chapters on writing e-mail messages and making oral presentations. A three-part flexible format mixes and matches writing chapters, grammar chapters, and a selection of ten readings. For individuals who want to improve their written communication skills.
